Classification Scheme of the National Repository of Grey Literature

The classification of documents is structured according to the following criteria:

A) Region – documents to the NRGL will be accepted only from the region of the Czech Republic
  1) Czech Republic

B) Time – The documents will be accepted to the repository from date of its foundation and selectively according to the agreements with primary producers of older documents as well.
  1) From 2009
  2) Selectively older

C) Levels of publishing – in respect to the focus of the repository only on grey literature, only documents that have not been published or that has not been fully published will be accepted
  1) not published at all
  2) not published officially

D) Contents – the repository is only focused on technical literature that is not further limited in contents
  1) Professional literature

E) Levels of processing – the repository is focused only on primary documents
  1) Primary
  2) Original works – the repository is focused only on original works of authors

F) Periodicity – Documents accepted to the repository will be processed as non-periodic documents.
  1) Non-periodic
  2) Periodic

G) Language – The Czech language is still the main language for publishing in the Czech Republic, but in the field of science and research English becomes more and more important.

  1) Czech
  2) English

H) Forms – the repository is focused only on electronic documents herein
  1) Electronic
    a) Multimedia
    b) Images
    c) Presentations
    d) Texts

J) Fields – the source for the repository are documents from the field of research and development, state administration, education and commercial sector.

    1) Research and development
    2) State administration
    3) Commercial sector
    4) Education

K) Types of documents

1) Academic theses (ETDs)
    a) Bachelor's theses
    b) Master's theses
    c) Doctoral theses
    d) Rigorous theses
    e) Habilitation theses

2) Reports
    a) Travel reports
    b) Grant reports
    c) Progress reports
    d) Statistical reports
    e) Technical reports
    f) Research reports
    g) Annual reports
    h) Final reports
    i) Status reports
    j) Survey reports

3) Author works
    a) Monographs
    b) Preprints
    c) Reviews
    d) Thematic collections

4) Trade literature
    a) Trade print
    b) Gazettes
    c) Product catalogues

5) Conference materials
    a) Posters
    b) Papers
    c) Proceedings
    d) Programmes

6) Analytical and methodological materials
    a) Studies
    b) Analyses
    c) Methods

7) Promotional and educational materials
   a) Brochures
   b) Flyers
   c) Exhibition catalogues
   d) Exhibition guides
   e) Press releases